

ADDRESS TO READERS

Dear colleagues and readers of Vestnik NovSU!

As you know, the journal “Vestnik NovSU” is included in the list of peer-reviewed scientific publications of the HAC RF (the Higher Attestation Commission of the Russian Federation), category K2. The HAC publications are meant for those who want to display their main scientific results of dissertations for the degree of candidate and doctor of science in many majors of technical, physical and mathematical sciences. Quite recently, on 19th of December 2024, a milestone event took place – the first defences of PhD were held in the Dissertation Council of Yaroslav-the-Wise Novgorod State University (chaired by Professor Mirza Bichurin). The researches were prepared in the majors 1.3.4. “Radiophysics” (Engineering) and 1.3.8. “Condensed-matter Physics” (Physics and Mathematics). The main results were published in the scientific journal “Vestnik NovSU”. It is a great pleasure to note that one of the papers was approved by the HAC RF on 4th of March 2025, and the second dissertation was also approved on 27th of March 2025. The Editorial Board of “Vestnik NovSU” and the Dissertation Council 24.2.346.03 congratulate Alexander Nikitin and Mikhail Kalitov on the approval of the PhD in Physics and Mathematics and PhD in Engineering by HAC RF, respectively, awarded by our Dissertation Council.

The editorial board of the journal “Vestnik NovSU” strives to maintain a high scientific level of published materials and prompt review of incoming articles. We provide high-quality reviewing and editorial preparation of papers in order to help authors to bring the results of their research to a wide scientific audience of readers, who are certainly interested in the discussion and dissemination of relevant knowledge of fundamental and applicable nature.

Emphasis is placed on the compliance of publications with the requirements of HAC RF, which guarantees the recognition of scientific achievements of degree candidates. The journal “Vestnik NovSU” is open for cooperation with researchers from various fields of technical, physical and mathematical sciences. We invite degree candidates, doctoral students and research workers to actively participate in the system of training and certification of academic staff in the field of physical, mathematical and technical sciences of NovSU and present the results of their research not only on the pages of the journal “Vestnik NovSU”, but also in the Dissertation Committee 24.2.346.03. Publication in our journal is an important step on the way to successful defence of your PhD and recognition of your scientific achievements.

The requirements for the execution of articles and rules of manuscript submission can be found on the official website of NovSU in the section devoted to the scientific-theoretical and applicable journal “Vestnik NovSU”. We wish our authors and readers great success in their scientific research and are waiting for your papers by the e-mail vestnik@novsu.ru!

Dr. Sci. in Physics and Mathematics, editorial board member of “Vestnik NovSU” journal, scientific secretary of the Dissertation Committee 24.2.346.03
